

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The Public School Library owes its origin to the enlightened spirit of the Council of Municipality No. Two, now First District, and is founded on an ordinance, submitted to that body, by Samuel J. Peters, Esq., and adopted on the 3d December, 1844, as follows:

AN ORDINANCE.

Providing for the establishment of a Lyceum and Library by the Scholars of the Public Schools of Municipality No. Two.

ARTICLE 1. Be it ordained, That there shall be established in this Municipality, a Lyceum and Library, the cost thereof to be defrayed by voluntary contributions of the scholars of the Public Schools.

ART. 2. Be it further ordained, That the contributions of each scholar shall not exceed twenty-five cents each month, or three dollars per annum. These payments during three years, or nine dollars paid at any time, shall constitute the scholar paying it a life member of the Public School Lyceum and Library Society; a certificate of membership, signed by the Recorder, with the seal of the municipality affixed, shall be given to each life-member.

ART. 3. Be it further ordained, That there shall be no other life-members of said Society than such as have been scholars in the Public Schools of this municipality, and in regular attendance during at least six months; but there may be annual subscribers to said Lyceum and Library, under such conditions and regulations as the Board of Directors may determine.

ART. 4. Be it, &c., That the Directors of the Public Schools shall also be the Directors of the Society hereby authorized to be established, with full authority to do all acts which may be necessary to carry into effect the intention of this ordinance, or any amendment thereof. The Treasurer of the municipality shall be the Treasurer of this Society.

ART. 5. Be it, &c., That it shall be the duty of the Superintendent of the Public Schools to require of each teacher in the first week of each month, an account of the contributions made by the scholars, and to receive the amount. The Superintendent shall pay the same to the Treasurer, who shall keep a separate account of all moneys so received, placing the amount to the credit of the Public School Lyceum and Library Society.

ART. 6. Be it, &c., That so soon as the sum of five thousand dollars shall be paid into the Treasury, to the credit of said Society, and shall be invested by the Directors in books, the municipality will provide suitable rooms therefor; and when the sum of fifteen thousand dollars shall in like manner have been paid into the treasury, the municipality will provide a lot and building in a central position, for the use of said Lyceum and Library Society.

ART. 7. Be it, &c., That when ten thousand dollars shall have been invested in books, at least one half of the annual income thereafter, shall be applied to purchasing such chemical and philosophical apparatus as may be necessary to aid in imparting a knowledge of the natural sciences; and for obtaining during eight months of each year, able professors, to lecture weekly on such branches of useful knowledge as may be determined on by the Directors;

963-016

Provided, That the lecture rooms of the Lyceum shall never be used for any religious or political discussions, and that no person shall be allowed to lecture therein, without the consent of the Directors previously obtained.

ART. 8. Be it, &c., That the municipality will receive, and hold for the exclusive use of said Society, donations from individuals disposed to aid the youth of the municipality in establishing the proposed Lyceum and Library; all donations and bequests being made to the municipality No. 2, for the benefit of said Society.

ART. 9. Be it, &c., That the Mayor of the City, the Recorder and Aldermen, and the Directors of the Public Schools shall be ex officio members of said Society, the Teachers of the Public Schools shall be honorary members thereof: all Teachers of the Public Schools, all Directors of the Public Schools, and all Aldermen of this Council, who have served, or may hereafter serve for five years, in such capacities, shall be honorary members of said society for life.

ART. 10. Be it, &c., That it shall not be lawful for the Directors of said Society to contract any debt; nor shall they appropriate any money except for the objects herein mentioned, without the consent of the Council previously obtained; and it shall be the duty of the Directors to report semi-annually to the Council, a detailed statement of the condition of said Society.

The Library was established in accordance with the above Ordinance, and opened to members and subscribers on the 10th of March, 1846. It then contained three thousand and four hundred volumes. Through liberal donations of books from enlightened citizens who desired the success of the enterprise, and from accessions since made by purchase, it now comprises over ten thousand volumes of well selected works, embracing all departments of Literature.

The liberal coöperation of the Common Council has been evidenced in the Ordinance by which this Society was established, and in the spacious apartments in the City Hall devoted to its use.

The revenue for the support of the Library has been derived mainly from the voluntary contributions of the Pupils of the Public Schools of the First District.

The funds thus raised, though creditable alike to the intelligence of the pupils and the prosperity of the schools, are not sufficient to make the Library as complete as its influence and means of usefulness require. It is confidently hoped that the appearance of this New Catalogue will greatly increase the subscription list, by showing the intrinsic excellence of the present collection, as also, by enlisting the interest and coöperation of parents and friends of our Public Schools and of Education generally, that through their patronage and exertions in procuring donations of Books, or funds to purchase the same, the extent and excellence of this collection may constantly increase.

EXPLANATION.

In order to render the following catalogue useful to subscribers, and to the visitors of the Library, the main objects of the Compiler were simplicity and perspicuity. The names of the authors of each class of works, and of each subdivision, are therefore arranged alphabetically, so that, knowing the subject, the reference to any book may be easily and quickly made.

The general index to the catalogue furnishes the clue to the author's name, when a work on any given subject is desired without a preference for any particular writer. This index also shows the extent of the collection in the Library on each of the subjects of investigation mentioned.

The compilation is made more valuable by a chapter on statistics, giving the name of the book and the volume and page on which the subjects, included in the chapter, are discussed. The index to this chapter will aid the inquirer.

The columns of figures at the right of each page, indicate the case or division, the shelf and number of the book on the shelf.

As the catalogue is designed simply for the use of the subscribers to the Library, it was not necessary to mention the edition, the number of pages or the size of the volumes.

The shelves in each case or division are numbered from one, commencing at the top and counting down.

The cases or divisions below the gallery are numbered from one to twenty-nine, number one being at the right hand of the Librarian's desk, and number twenty-nine at his left.

Divisions numbered higher than twenty-nine are above the gallery.
